Potomac River Fisheries Commission Meeting

Colonial Beach, VA —

Chairman Kyle J. Schick announced today the Potomac River Fisheries Commission will hold a special meeting on Thursday, July 28, 2022 at 1:00 p.m. in the John T. Parran Hearing Room at the PRFC Commission Office. Chairman Schick invites all interested persons to attend this open public meeting.

This special meeting was called to discuss the 2022 crab harvest and have a discussion of potential 2022-2023 crab management responses. There will also be discussions about future Interjurisdictional Management Discussions; and the cost increase of CP ID decals; and the increase of postage for shipping and handling. There will also be items for public hearing consideration.

This meeting is open to the public and all interested persons are invited to attend. The PRFC does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities; therefore, if you are in need of reasonable accommodations due to a disability, please call (804) 224-7148 no later than three work days prior to the meeting date and identify your needs.

If you are unable to attend this meeting in person, you have the option to attend virtually by joining the meeting from your computer, tablet or smartphone using the following link:
